I Reared a Criminal

In the Ladies' Home Journal is an article entitled, "I Reared a Criminal." It is the true story of a heartbroken mother. We quote:

We loved him, but -

His father was too busy to be with him when he was young.

I couldn't bring myself to punish him for misbehavior.

We sided against his teachers when they complained about his work (and conduct) in school.

As he grew up he would hardly discuss the time of day with us.

He was expelled from school.

We gave him money so he wouldn't steal again.

I wept when the police called and I had to turn my boy over to them... As I watched them search him my life seemed to end. (1975)

Area-Wide Tent Meeting

Monday- Saturday, 7:00PM

Each night will include hymn singing, special music, and an evangelist preaching the Word! Refreshments will be available for purchase after the service.

Come out to commemorate the 250th Anniversaries of the settlement of Buffalo and the Baptist tent meeting, both of which occurred in 1758.

Bring guests. Bring the lost. Pray and fast. Come every day you can! Dress as if going to an outdoor meeting.

Directions: Take I-90 to I-190. Get off at Exit 1. Make left onto Dingens St. Take first left onto Ogden St. Make left onto Clinton St. Go straight 0.5 miles to Fontana's Grove. It takes about 20 minutes from the church.
