Due to the difficult winter we are having we have lost much of our parking spaces to snow piles. We ask the regulars who are healthy to drop your family off at the door and park in the new parking lot and walk in. Try to keep the parking by the church open for new people, older people, and those with infirmities.

Man with Truck needed to go to Pittsburg in the next few weeks to pick up new stoves for the kitchen. See Frank Broughton or Pastor Kohl if you can help. Gas money provided.

Monday is President's Day

What some of our presidents
have said about the Bible

Thomas Jefferson - "The Bible is the cornerstone of liberty . . . I have always said, I always will say, that the studious perusal of the Sacred volume will make better citizens, better fathers, and better husbands."

John Adams - " So great is my veneration for the Bible that the earlier my children begin to read it, the more confident will be my hope that they will prove useful citizens of their country and respectable members of society."

U. S. Grant - Hold fast to the Bible as the sheet-anchor of your liberties; write its precepts in your hearts, and practice them in your lives. To the influence of the Book we are indebted for all the progress made in true civilization, and to this we much look as our guide in the future. 'Righteous exalteth a nation: but sin is a reproach to any people.' Proverbs 14:34.

Abraham Lincoln - I believe the Bible is the best gift God has ever given man. All the good from the Saviour of the world is communicated to us through this book."

Theodore Roosevelt - "Mere education without Divine guidance is like handing a gun to an irresponsible man.

John Quincy Adams - "I have for many years made it a practice to read through the Bible once a year. My custom is to read four or five chapters every morning immediately after rising from my bed. It employs about an hour of my time, and seems to me the most suitable manner of beginning the day. In what light soever we regard the Bible, whether with reference to revelation, to history, or to morality, it is an invaluable and inexhaustive mine of knowledge and virtue."

Victory Verses: Arrogancy

I Samuel 2:3

*"Talk no more so exceeding proudly; let not arrogancy come out of your mouth: for the LORD is a God
of knowledge, and by him
actions are weighed."*

Proverbs 8:13

*" The fear of the LORD is to hate evil: pride, and arrogancy,
and the evil way, and the
froward mouth,
do I hate."*

Jesus quoted Scripture
when the devil tempted Him to sin. He used the Sword of the Spirit,
which is the Word of God.
We should too!
(Matthew 4:1-11; Ephesians 6:17)

An Excerpt from the Christian Gentleman's Handbook

A gentleman's belt matches the color of his shoes as closely as possible.

A man's tie should fall with the tip of the tie approximately in the middle of the belt buckle.
The tie may fall slightly below
the belt but never above it.
