Consider this charge to teachers from Harvard Professor of Education and Psychiatry, Chester M Pierce MD: "Every child entering school at age five is mentally ill because he comes to school with certain allegiances to our Founding Fathers, elected officials, his parents, toward a belief in a supernatural being, and the sovereignty of this nation as a separate entity. Its up to you, as teachers, to make all these sick children well - by creating the international child of the future." Teachers, reject this admonition. Parents of public school children, consider homeschooling or private education. If not, be sure you have a Christian home where the Bible is read, prayers are said, and Christ is head!

Contenders for our Country

SIGNERS OF THE DECLARATION OF INDEPENDENCE

God's Way is the Best!

Signer #50: Thomas Heyward (1746-1809)

South Carolina. Age at signing: 30

Occupation: Lawyer

Married: Elizabeth (5 children)

Suzanne (3 children)

Quotes & Notes:

Heyward joined the militia in 1779 as a captain of the artillery, in the same battalion with Edward Rutledge, another signer. He fought in several battles and suffered a gunshot wound at the Battle of Beaufort, which scarred him for life. He and Rutledge were both captured by the British during the fall of Charleston. They were imprisoned at St Augustine, Florida, in a prison reserved for rebels considered particularly dangerous. The British proceeded to plunder Heyward's plantation.

It was while imprisoned that he composed a song, "God Save the States," to the music of "God Save the King," and taught it to his fellow prisoners. It served to inspire the prisoners to new heights of patriotism.

After about a year in prison, Heyward and Rutledge were released in a prisoner exchange. On route to Philadelphia by ship, Heyward nearly lost his life when he fell overboard. He saved himself from drowning by hanging onto the ship's rudder until he was rescued. To add to his hardships, his wife died in his absence from home in 1782.

"Therefore the Lord himself shall give you a sign; Behold, a virgin shall conceive, and bear a son, and shall call his name Immanuel." Isaiah 7:14

Christ for sickness, Christ for health
Christ for poverty, Christ for wealth,
Christ for joy, Christ for sorrow;
Christ today; Christ tomorrow.

Christ my life and Christ my light;
Christ for morning, noon and night;
Christ when all around gives way;
Christ my everlasting stay.

Christ my rest, and Christ my food;
Christ above my highest good;
Christ my well-beloved, my Friend;
Christ my pleasure without end.

Christ my Savior, Christ my Lord;
Christ my portion, Christ my God;
Christ my Shepherd, I His sheep;
Christ Himself my soul doth keep;

Christ my leader, Christ my peace;
Christ hath brought my soul's release;
Christ my righteousness divine;
Christ for me, for He is mine.

Christ my wisdom, Christ my meat;
Christ restores my wandering feet;
Christ my Advocate and Priest;
Christ who ne'er forgets the least.

Christ my teacher, Christ my guide;
Christ my rock, in Christ I hide;
Christ my ever-living bread;
Christ His precious blood hath shed.

Christ my glory, Christ my crown;
Christ the plant of great renown;
Christ my Comforter on high;
Christ my hope draws ever nigh.
