Philippians 3:15-17

- ¹⁵ Let us therefore, as many as be perfect, be thus minded: and if in any thing ye be otherwise minded, God shall reveal even this unto you.
- ¹⁶ Nevertheless, whereto we have already attained, let us walk by the same rule, let us mind the same thing.
- ¹⁷ Brethren, be followers together of me, and mark them which walk so as ye have us for an ensample.

Check the boxes for each day that you say this week's memory verses:

Stripe-Washing Service

In one of his Orlando meetings, Evangelist Dr. T.T. Martin (1862-1939) once conducted a unique service - a "stripe washing service." He preached on the Philippian jailor of Acts 16, and told how, after his conversion, he washed the stripes of Paul and Silas, which he had inflicted.

Dr. Martin earnestly urged his audience to go to those present whom they had injured in any way, confess the wrong, and humbly ask forgiveness. A most touching scene followed as, weeping, many sought to get right with one another so they could get right with God.

If the Lord be with us, we have no cause of fear. His eye is upon us, His arm over us, His ear open to our prayer. His grace sufficient, His promise unchangeable.
