People Need the Lord

The two young men who wrote the song "People Need the Lord", Greg Nelson and Phil McHugh give this story:

"We spent most of the morning talking about [song] ideas. We decided, about lunch time, to go to a restaurant near my office in Nashville.

"After we were seated, a waitress came to our table. As she approached us and smiled, it seemed that her eyes were so empty. She was trying to convey a cheery attitude, but her face seemed to say something else. She took our order and walked away.

"Phil and I looked at each other and one of us said to the other, 'She needs the Lord.'

"We then began looking around the restaurant at all of the people there. They, too, seemed to have an emptiness in their faces. We sensed a real heaviness in our hearts as we watched them. Suddenly we realized that all of those people need the Lord. Just as quickly we both thought, We need to write that - people need the Lord."

Track Your Tracts

At the beginning of each month this year, a card will be in your bulletin asking how many times you gave out the gospel the previous month. Grab some tracts from the Resource Room, and start passing them out!
