Give the Bible to the people, unadulterated, pure, unaltered, unexplained, uncheapered, and then see it work through the whole nature.

It is very difficult indeed for a man or for a boy who knows the Scriptures to get away from it.

It follows him like the memory of his mother. It haunts him like an old song. It reminds him like the word of an old and revered teacher. It forms a part of the warp and woof of his life.

- Woodrow Wilson (1856-1924)

Washington Crossing Delaware Standing

Teacher: "Do you know whether George Washington was a soldier or a sailor?"

Student: "He was a soldier."

Teacher: "How do you know?"

Student: "Cause I saw a picture of him crossing the Delaware, and any sailor'd know enough not to stand up in the boat."

George Washington's Birthday is on Saturday

Quotes to Note

- Some wish to live within the sound of the church and chapel bell. I wish to run a rescue mission within a yard of hell."
- C. T. Studd
- Habitual sin must be starved out not tapered off.
- A quiet church is either a dying church or a dead church. We need kids that cry and people who testify.

- God is more interested in your spiritual success than He is in your material success. He will meet your needs, but His primary emphasis is to bring you to a place of spiritual prosperity.

- When it comes to trials, temptations, heartaches and struggles, we often turn to prayer as our last resort after we have exhausted all of our own efforts. Instead, it should be our first resource for strength, wisdom, and help. God is so much better at handling things than we are.
