Dear Parents,

Our nursery & children's classes resume today. Please note that we are not requiring face masks, taking temperatures, enforcing social distance limits, etc. If you have any apprehension about this, please continue to keep your children in the church service with you. For the younger attenders, remember that the crying room in the back of the auditorium is also available with a monitor so you can continue to watch the service.

Thank you for your understanding and cooperation.

Charles Spurgeon's (1832-1892)
 Commentary on Mark 14:29

"But Peter said unto him, Although all shall be offended, yet will not I."
 There was love in that utterance, and so far it was commendable. But there was also much self-trust in it. And there was great presumption, for Peter dared even to contradict his Master to his face; and, at the same time, he contradicted the inspired Scripture, for Jesus had told the disciples that it was written that the sheep would be scattered. Yet Peter boldly denied both what God had written and what Christ had said. God save us from such a proud self-confident spirit as that!

From the Spurgeon Study Bible.

30 Facets of Love

Biblical love is like a many-faceted diamond. Some of the facets that are described in Scripture include:

From 1 Corinthians 13:

- 1.) Love is charity - v.4 - the giving of one's self or one's possessions with no expectation of anything in return
- 2.) Love is suffering - v.4 - as God suffers with us for a long time.
- 3.) Love is kindness - v. 4 - God is kind to the unthankful and evil.
