Quotes on Friendship

Be slow in choosing a friend, slower in changing
 - Benjamin Franklin

Friends are like good health; you don't realize what a gift they are until you lose them.

A small boy once defined a friend as "someone who knows all about you and likes you just the same."

Hearing Impaired Devices are available for all services. See any usher.

Charles Spurgeon's
 commentary on Job 33:14
"For God speaketh once, yea twice, yet man perceiveth it not."

Divine lovingkindness has many voices. God often speaks to us in our childhood. Some of us hardly remember when our Lord first called us, as he called Samuel. We cannot forget the voices of our youth and boyhood - the messages the Lord sent to us through loving parents and kindhearted teachers, or the direct admonitions of the Holy Spirit.

God spoke to us and spoke to us again, and spoke to us yet again; but we did not notice his voice. People are hard to influence for good. The ear has to be opened. The heart has to be broken off from its evil purposes. Our pride has to be conquered. There are many things to be done before we are fully influenced to our eternal salvation. And God knows how to come at us. By day or night, by voices heard when we are in the midst of our business, or "in a dream, in a vision of the night" (33:15). Before God can save people, he has to open our ears: "Then he openeth the ears of men, and sealeth their instruction" (33:16).

Are our ears stopped up? Perhaps not our outward ears. Most of us can hear - we can hear the money jingle and are soon after it. We have quick ears for some things that are not worth hearing. But toward God our ears are often stopped up.

Biblical love is like a many-faceted diamond. Some of the facets that are described in Scripture include:
 From 1 Corinthians 13:
10. Love is forgiving - v.5 - doesn't keep a record of wrongs. Doesn't remember past offences.
11. Love is hating evil - v.6 - "Ye that love the Lord, hate evil..." Ps. 97:10. Rejoices not in iniquity.
12. Love is rejoicing in truth - v.6 - enjoys the thing of God.
