The story is told of a preacher who went to his usual prayer meeting and found nobody present. He began to toll the church bell. Soon a dozen people came running to ask who was dead.

"The church." Replied the preacher, as he continued to toll the bell.

The religion which has introduced civil liberty is the religion of Christ and His apostles...this is genuine Christianity and to this we owe our free constitutions of government.

30 Facets of Love

Biblical love is like a many-faceted diamond. Some of the facets that are described in Scripture include:

From 1 Corinthians 13:

- 13. Love is bearing burdens - v.7 - The burdens of others and your own.
14. Love is faith - v.7 - "...faith which worketh by love..." Gal. 5:6.
15. Love is expectation - v.7 - "Hopeth all things" is an expectant, perfected faith that something is done, even before God does it.

So long as there are homes to which
 men turn at close of day,
 so long as there are homes where children are - where women stay -
 if love and loyalty and faith be found
 across these sills,
 a stricken nation can recover from it
 gravest ills.

So long as there are homes where fires
 burn and there is bread,
 so long as there are home where
 lamps are lit and prayers are said;
 although a people falters through the
 dark and nations grope,
 with God Himself back of these homes
 we still can hope.

Charles Spurgeon's
 Commentary on 1 Timothy
"Unto Timothy, my own son in the faith: Grace, mercy, and peace."

Notice the apostle's triple salutation, "Grace, mercy, and peace." Whenever Paul writes to a church, he wishes "Grace and peace.". But to a minister he wishes "Grace, mercy, and peace." Ah, we [ministers] need mercy more than the average Christian. We have greater responsibilities and, consequently, might more readily fall into greater sin. So to a minister Paul's salutation is, "Grace, mercy, and peace."

Good Question

A youngster received a red wagon for Christmas and for days he went nowhere without it.

But one afternoon he was happily rolling it along the front sidewalk when his father called, "Take that wagon in back and play with it. Remember it's Sunday."

The boy started to obey, then turned around and with a puzzled look asked, "Isn't it Sunday in the back yard, too?"
