30 Facets of Love

Biblical love is like a many-faceted diamond. Some of the facets that are described in Scripture include:

- From 1 Corinthians 13:
16. Love is endurance – v.7
17. Love is everlasting – v.8
 From other Scriptures:
18. Love builds up others – 1 Cor. 8:1

I Live to DYE

Christian author and educator, Dr. A. C. Gaebelein once noticed a sign in a small dyeing establishment which read:

"I live to dye; I dye to live the more I dye the more I live the more I live the more I dye."

Read these words aloud and you will hear a great spiritual truth. The more there is death to self, the more fully is the Lord Jesus Christ able to live His life in us. "I am crucified with Christ; nevertheless I live; yet not I, but Christ liveth in me" (Gal. 2:20). This kind of living is possible to every believer by full appropriation of all that is his in Christ. "Likewise reckon ye also yourselves to be dead indeed unto sin, but alive unto God through Jesus Christ our Lord." (Rom. 6:11)

Today, Sir, Today!

A tourist who visited an exquisite garden on one of the lovely estates in Italy, wrote the following account of his conversation with the caretaker: "How long have you been here?" he asked. "Twenty-five years." "And how often has the owner been to see the estate?" "Four times." "When did he come last?" "Twelve years ago." "He writes to you, I suppose?" "Never." "From whom do you get your orders?" "From the steward in Milan." "Does he come here often?" "Never." "Who comes, then, to look after things?" "I am left pretty much alone; very seldom do I see any strangers." "Yet you keep the gardens so spic-and-span that one would think you were expecting the owner tomorrow." "Today, sir, today!"
