What is the Book of Nahum about

The prophet Nahum of Galilee wrote the book called by his name. Nahum's name signified Jehovah will avenge and comfort His people. He prophesied during the latter part of Isaiah's ministry.

The theme of the book is God's judgement upon Assyria in the time of her invasion of Judah, and in the overthrow of Nineveh (the capital) one hundred years later.

The severity and finality of this judgement are explained by the fact that many years before, Jonah had come preaching that judgement would fall on the city in forty days unless the people repented. Repentance delivered the city at that time.

Because they came to know the true God through Jonah's preaching, their later return to idolatry was to apostatize. With their knowledge of light, their responsibility became even greater.
