What is the Book of Zephaniah about?

Zephaniah lived during the reign of Josiah (2 Kings 22). He prophesied about the Day of the Lord. While Josiah was king, there was a great revival, but this turning to the Lord in true repentance had not taken place when Zephaniah began his ministry. Probably his message encouraged the king and led the people to turn to the Lord.

However, Zephaniah had to remind the people that their former sins were unjudged; and he prophesied that judgement was coming. It did come in Nebuchadnezzar's invasion and the captivity. But that, terrible as it was, was only a picture of the judgement that will come upon Israel as well as upon Gentiles who are on earth at the time of the severe Tribulation in the Day of the Lord.

Commentary on Psalm 118:21

"I will praise thee: for thou has heard me, and art become my salvation."

Answers to prayer are the notes of our music. If God has heard us pray, we must take care that He hears us praise. Mercies for which we are not thankful will curdle into curses. We should take care that we praise God when He fills us with His good things and praise Him is He does not. We should bless a taking God as well as a giving God. Is He not equally God whatever He does?

- Charles Spurgeon

Notable Quotes:

"The further men get from the truth the more people will hate those who say it."

- George Orwell

"I am afraid that there is a certain class of race—problem solvers who don't want the patient to get well, because as long as the disease holds out they have not only an easy means of making a living, but also an easy medium through which to make themselves prominent before the public."

- Booker T. Washington
