What is Galatians About?

Paul wrote this letter to expose the errors of reverting back to Judaism, and to defend the pure gospel that he had taught the Galatians. His insisted, first, that he was a true apostle whose message came from God, and second, that the gospel was a revelation from God and that it rests upon a promise made to Abraham hundreds of years before the Law was given. The lesson is needed today. People still need to be taught that being saved or born again is by belief on the Lord Jesus Christ and not by "doing one's best," and the Christian life depends not on trying to be good, but by trusting in the inner working of the Holy Spirit.

Missionary of the Week

Michael & Susan Todd
 in World Evangelism

We have supported them since 1993

"If I had a brother who had been murdered, what would you think of me if I daily consorted with the assassin who drove the dagger into my brother's heart; surely I too must be an accomplice to the crime. Sin murdered Christ; will you be friend to it? Sin pierced the heart of the Incarnate God; can you love it?"
 - C. H. Spurgeon

"The man who comes to a right belief about God is relieved of ten thousand temporal problems for he sees at once that these have to do with matters which at the most cannot concern him very long."
 - A. W. Tozer

How to help the church grow

- 1) Sit toward the front or in the balcony. Visitors will feel much more comfortable if they can sit in the back at first.
- 2) Park in the back parking lot by the athletic field if you are healthy enough to walk in. Visitors don't know that exists, so they will be looking for a parking spot right behind the church.
- 3) Park carefully within the lines of the parking lot so as not to take up two or more spots
