What is the Book of Hebrews About?

The theme of the book is the superiority of Christ and thus of Christianity. The words "better," "perfect," and "heavenly" appear frequently. The outline shows how the theme is developed by proving that Christ is superior both in His person and His priesthood.

Favorite passages include 2:3 (so great a salvation), 4:12 (the living Word of God), 4:16 (the throne of grace), 7:25 (the intercession of Christ), 11:1 (the description of faith), 11:4-40 (the heroes of faith), 12:1-2 (the Christian race), and 13:20-21 (a great benediction).

Where?

"Eternity!—where?" it floats in the air: Amid clamor, or silence, it ever is there, The question so solemn:

"Eternity!—where?"
"Eternity!—where? Oh, eternity!—where?"

With redeemed ones in glory, or fiends in despair?

With one or the other: "Eternity!—where?"

"Eternity!—where?" is well worth a care;

Oh, shall we, oh, can we e'en venture to dare,

Oh naught till we settle: "Eternity!—where?"

"Eternity!—where? Oh, eternity!—where?"

Friend, sleep not, nor take in this world any share,

Till you answer the question: "Eternity!—where?"

A Sacrifice

The story is told of two boys playing together. They had been reading about the animal sacrifices in the Old Testament. In their little game, they built a small altar of stones and placed some wood upon it. When it was finished, one boy turned to the other and said, "Now we must find a sacrifice."

The other little boy looked at his toys. His eyes fell on a wooden camel with one of the legs broken off. Picking it up, he said, "Here, let's sacrifice this! It's no good anyhow."

How many times we Christians are just like the little boy with the camel—give God something not worth anything.
