"For God is the King of all the earth: sing ye praises with understanding." - Psalm 47:7

Holman Hunt displayed his masterpiece, CHRIST THE LIGHT OF THE WORLD. The picture shows Christ holding a lantern outside a closed door; He is knocking at the door.

A critic told Mr. Hunt that he had made an error in the painting because there was no door latch. Mr. Hunt replied, "That is to depict the door to the human heart. It can only be opened by the occupant from the inside."

Christ stands ready to enter and to redeem any who let Him in. (See Revelation 3:20)

He Never Gave

The old German shoemaker had just sent his boy with a basket of garden stuff to a poor widow. He worked hard at his trade and cultivated his little garden patch, yet nothing was more common in his life than some such deed as this.

"How can you afford to give so much away?" I asked him.

"I give nothing away," he said. "I lend it to the Lord, and He repays me many times. I am ashamed that people think I am generous when I am paid so much. A long time ago, when I was very poor, I saw someone in want, and I wondered if I could give, but I could not see how. I did give, and the Lord helped me. I have had more work, my garden grows well, and never since have I stopped to think twice when I have heard of some needy one. No, if I gave away all, the Lord would not let me starve. It is like money in the bank, only this time the bank never breaks, and the interest comes back every day."

A lad who heard his father pray for missions, and especially for the needs of missionaries that they might be supplied and that their institutions might be amply sustained, said to him, "Father, I wish I had your money."

"Why, my son, what would you do with it?" asked the father.

"I would answer your prayers," was the reply.
