He that does good, for good's sake, seeks neither praise nor reward; though sure of both at last.

A good character is the best tombstone. Those who loved you and were helped by you will remember you when forget-me-nots are withered. Carve your name on hearts and not on marble.

- Charles H. Spurgeon

No Time to Complain

On one occasion when young in experience I had written my preacher-father telling him of my troubles and feeling sorry for myself. His reply was something like this:

"Son, by the time you take childhood off one end of your life and old age off the other end, you don't have much time for doing good. Make the best of your time."

That was a gentle yet impressive rebuke I have never forgotten. You don't have time to complain and find fault.

Take Your Choice:

If you want your father to take care of you, that's Paternalism.

If you want your mother to take care of you, that's Maternalism

If you want Uncle Sam to take care of you, that's Socialism.

If you want your comrades to take care of you, that's Communism.

If you want to take care of yourself, that's Americanism!
