What is “Pastor Emeritus”?

It is an honorary title given to a former retired or semi-retired Pastor who remains a member of the church and continues to minister there in some capacity.

It is a position of advice and influence, but not of authority. It is sometimes a paid position which will not be the case here. Pastor (and Leslie) feel they will be able to live on the inheritance he received from his Dad’s estate for the rest of their lives. His pay will end at the end of April of this year from the church.

He will be continuing to minister in areas that he and Pastor Baran have discussed.

What is a “Pastor-at-Large”?

This is like a circuit riding preacher from the old days who goes around and helps where he can with other churches he is associated with.

In Pastor Kohl’s case they may include helping the Countryside Baptist Church in Perrysburg, Bright Way Baptist Church in Cattaragus, and the Hilltop Baptist Church in Evans. Pastor Kohl may also visit other churches where invited and try to be a Pastor to Pastors.

He wants to continue a preaching, teaching, counseling, and writing ministry to help the body of Christ at large. Maybe even another church plant or two. He would like to start a “Pastor’s School” YouTube channel type of ministry also.
