A Father's Prayer

Dear God, my little boy of three has said his nightly prayer to Thee. Before his eyes were closed in sleep, he asked that Thou his soul would keep.

And I, still kneeling at his bed, my hand upon his tousled head, do ask with deep humility, that Thou, dear Lord, remember me.

Make me, kind Lord, a worthy dad, that I may lead this little lad in pathways ever fair and bright, that I may keep his steps aright, oh God, his trust must never be destroyed or even marred by me.

So, for the simple things he prayed with childish voice so unafraid, I, trembling, ask the same from Thee Dear Lord, kind lord, remember me.

A Living Bright Reality

Mr. Spurgeon testified that when he opened his eyes at the conclusion of his public prayer, he was sometimes startled and embarrassed to realize that he was in the presence of his congregation.

He had been so near to God, talking to Him as friend with friend, that he had forgotten all else. Are there many today to whom Jesus seems so near as that? Yes, there are, but many more ought to know this blessed experience.
