Hymn Histories

"I Love to Tell the Story"
 Katherine Hankey (1834-1911)
 devoted her life to Sunday School work. She fell seriously ill at age 30. During her convalescence, she wrote a long poem which contains the words of this hymn. Also from this long poem is taken another Hymn, "Tell Me the Old, Old Story"

"I Must Tell Jesus"

Elisha Hoffman was born in Pennsylvania and spent his life as a pastor there. Once while visiting one who had been through deep trial, she cried: "Oh, what shall I do? I don't know what to do!" Then her face brightened and she said, "I must tell Jesus!" On his way home, the words of the woman came to the pastor's mind, and that night he wrote this comforting song. Hoffman (1839-1929) also wrote, "Is Your All on the Altar?", "Are You Washed in the Blood?", and "Glory to His Name."
