What Matters

My mother says she does not care About the color of my hair, Nor if my eyes be blue or brown or if my nose turns up or down-

It really does not matter.

And Mother says she does not care If I am dark or if I'm fair, Or if I'm thin, or if I'm fat; She does not fret o'er things like that--

It really does not matter

But if I cheat or tell a lie Or say mean things to make folks cry, Or if I'm rude or impolite; And do not try to do the right,

Then that does really matter!

It isn't looks that make one great, But character that seals your fate. It's what is within your heart, you see, That makes or mars your destiny,

And that does really matter!

Down to Get Up

"The great man humbleth himself." - Isaiah 2:9 I used to think that God's gifts were on shelves one above another; and that the taller we grow in Christian character the easier we could reach them. I now find that God's gifts are on shelves one beneath the other; and that it is not a question of growing taller but of stooping lower; and that we have to go down always to get His best gifts.

-F.B. Meyer

Things to Remember

The value of time. The necessity of perseverance. The pleasure of working.
 The worth of character. The dignity of simplicity. The power of kindness. The wisdom of saving. The virtue of patience. The job of originality. The beauty of cheerfulness. The influence of example. The obligation of duty.
