"If a commission by an earthly king is considered a honor, how can a commission by a Heavenly King be considered a sacrifice?"

The Difference

I got up early one morning, and rushed right into the day. I had so much to accomplish, that I didn't have time to pray. Problems just tumbled about me, and heavier came each task. "Why doesn't God help me?" I wondered. He said, "But you didn't ask."

I wanted to see joy and beauty, but the day toiled on, gray and bleak. I wondered why God didn't show me. He said, "But you didn't seek."

I tried to come into God's presence: I used all my keys at the lock. God gently and lovingly chided, My child you didn't knock.

I woke up early this morning, and paused before entering the day. I had so much to accomplish, that I had forgot to take time to pray.

A college student was in a philosophy class which had a discussion about God's existence. The professor presented the following logic: "Has anyone in this class heard God?" Nobody spoke. "Has anyone in this class touched God?" Again nobody spoke. "Has anyone in this class seen God?" When nobody spoke for the third time, he simply stated "Then there is no God." One student thought for a second, and then asked for permission to reply. Curious to hear this bold student's response, the professor granted it. The student stood up and asked the following questions of his classmates: "Has anyone in this class heard our professor's brain?" Silence. "Has anyone in this class touched our professor's brain?" Absolute silence. "Has anyone in this class seen our professor's brain?" When nobody in the class dared to speak, the student concluded, "Then, according to our professor's logic, it must be true that our professor has no brain!"
