Charles Spurgeon on New Year's Resolutions

"That he no longer should live the rest of his time in the flesh to the lusts of men, but to the will of God." - 1 Peter 4:2

I do not know how much time remains, but it cannot be long even for the longest-lived person. We must not forget that while we are talking about the rest of our life, it is already passing by. Every moment we are here, we are traveling at an immense rate, speeding onward to the great goal of death. We must be earnest. For while we are making up our minds to be earnest, our time is slipping away. The way to do a great deal is to keep on doing a little. The way to do nothing at all is to be continually resolving that we will do everything.

Another Year Is Dawning

Another year is dawning!
 Dear Father, let it be,
 In working or in waiting,
 Another year for Thee;
 Another year of leaning
 Upon Thy loving breast;
 Another year of trusting,
 Of quiet, happy rest;

Another year of mercies,
 Of faithfulness and grace;
 Another year of gladness
 In the shining of Thy face;
 Another year of progress,
 Another year of praise;
 Another year of proving
 Thy presence all the days;

Another year of service,
 Of witness for Thy love;
 Another year of training
 For holier work above.
 Another year is dawning!
 Dear Father, let it be
 On earth, or else in heaven,
 Another year for Thee.
