The Prayer Life of Fanny Crosby—Part 1

Fanny Crosby, though blinded in infancy, greeted friends and strangers alike with a cheerful "God bless you dear soul." And, according to her own statement, she never attempted to write a hymn without first kneeling in prayer. If this be true, Fanny Crosby spent considerable time on her knees. She wrote no less than 8,000 songs.

Spring into Action

When you see a child running in front of a bus you do not pray, "Lord stop that bus"; you spring into action and do all you can to save the child.

We need to stop praying for the Lord to do it all and spring into action and do our part to save some souls.

Eenie Meenie

A mother listening to the evening prayers of her sleepy little daughter was astonished and amazed to hear the following:

"Now I lay me down to sleep, I pray the Lord my soul to keep, And when he hollers let him go, eenie, meenie, miny, mo."
