- That we would raise 100% of our Support by July 2016

FINISHING SUMMER

Our church had its booth set up for soul winning, as they do every year. Faith Bible sent members, and Amazing Grace Missionaries out to the fair every day for 14 days! There were a couple of surprises this year! The preview day got moved up, and the opening time every day was moved to 9am instead of 10am. Our people had to work extra to cover the new gaps. There was a total of 217 people who made a profession of faith, and there were countless smileys (the tract we use for the fair) and other tracts given out to passers by! Kayleigh and I were blessed to be able to participate with our church this year. On Sunday afternoon, in between services, I was able to council two teen guys in the booth, and go through the plan of salvation with them!

While we were handing out tracts, a kid I used to have on my bus came up and said, "Hi." I couldn't believe it! I hadn't seen him in about 4 Years!!! It was so cool to see him and be able to talk to him for a few minutes. It totally made my day!

A few short weeks later, we were at a church, about 2 hours away from our home church, and we ran into two more of our previous "bus kids". We were so happy to see them, and we were glad to see that they are still in a Great church. Sometimes you never know what happens to these kids once their parents move, or maybe they just stop coming. We thank God for allowing us to see these kids again, and know that He still has His hands on their life! We will continue to pray for them, and I know that the other people from the bus route at church remember them and pray for them too!

BLESSING!

We were encouraged by many of the pastors that we have visited these past few months! We've been able to make new friendships with them, or we've been able to get to know Pastors whom we've known of, but not ever sat down with before. One Pastor was an extra special blessing. We had lunch with Pastor and his kids was fun and tasty! Eating very spicy fajitas with a brother in the LORD will draw you close together. There is fellowship in suffering. I was able to share my heart with him, and he with me. It's such a blessing when you can make a FRIEND on the road. He said some very nice things about us in front of his church, and we were humbled to have been a blessing on Sunday. It's so good to be used of God, and to also be ministered to. But then again, isn't that the whole point of going to church and fellowshiping with other believers?

FAMILY NEWS

Our family has a busy month of September. Kayleigh celebrates her birthday in the beginning of the month. Adrienne celebrates her birthday in the middle. Our wedding anniversary is at the end of the month!

We are so happy to have Adrienne in our lives! We have enjoyed our first year with her immensely, and Kayleigh and I are looking forward to having many more years with her. She has made us laugh a lot, she has quite the personality!

I also am glad for my marriage to Kayleigh! She takes care of me and is the help that I meet for my needs. I am so grateful for the past 3 years that I've had with her. They have been fun and exciting years, to say the least, which is funny cause she is so introverted and shy.

I love both of my girls!

THANKS!

Thanks so much to the churches that have taken us on over the summer! We've had churches that we've presented at last fall take us on in the past few months, and we've had a church that we presented to last week take us on the last day of their missions conference! What a blessing and encouragement to our family that is. We also appreciate those of you who read these letters and pray for us! We can't do it without you, or the LORD's help! We are honored to have you all in our corner!
