PRAYER REQUESTS

- Health and Safety while we travel
- Kayleigh to have a safe pregnancy, and to be well as we visit churches
- To fill our schedule with Meetings & Missions Conferences
- That we would raise 100% of our Support by July 2016

In December, we were asked to provide music for one of the churches that we have presented at. We used this geographic opportunity (or in other words, "We were in the area") to visit a church that I had been to about 4 years previously when I was working near Corning on a Wednesday night. I know the pastor through another church near us, but I had not gotten a hold of him to schedule a meeting.

Legend has it that Bucksettlement was a bustling metropolis at one point.... Well, maybe not bustling, but it had a firehouse! This town is located outside of Bath NY, and its all farm land now. All that's left in this town is the church you see here, and farms and houses. Its great driving to it. If you haven't been before, you may ask yourself "Am I going the right way?" This church, though, is BUSY! It was such a blessing to be there. Pastor Fergusson was a great hosting pastor, especially since we were just looking for a place to have Sunday service at. He gave me some time to give a testimony, and he allowed us to play our piano duet for his church. We were happy to be able to minister that Sunday.

They also blessed us with a love offering and decided to take us on for support that same morning!

I can't begin to describe what a christmas present that was for our family. It takes so much work and time from the point that you make contact with a pastor to when that church votes to support you, and through Bucksettlement Baptist Church's generosity, we were able to bypass a lot of that time!

We have raised
of our Support

BLESSING!

We were able to participate in our last Winter Camp before Papua New Guinea just a few weeks ago. Our church, Faith Bible Baptist Church, puts on a teen camp every year between Christmas and New Year Day. Its a great blessing and a way for young people to get closer to God after the holiday season. This year's theme was "Who Will Go?" This was a missions theme designed to get teens to think about the ministry.

It was a great blessing to be able to help encourage teens to consider the mission field! Pastor Seth wanted us to show that being a missionary is attainable. Sometimes it seems impossible or insurmountable to get to a field (let alone stay there!), but we were able to testify about how God can lead you to the perfect place that he wants you to minister in.

At the end of Winter Camp, Pastor Seth had asked pastors to come down and pray over us. He wanted to "Send us out" as missionaries who were influenced by Winter Camp as teenagers, ourselves. Not only did Pastors come down, but just about all of camp crowded down to the altar. What a blessing to be supported by our fellow Christians! The two pastors who led the prayer are pastors from churches that support us already! What a great encouragement for us to actually see some of the people behind us.

Winter Camp will always be good memories for us. This is another great one that we will cherish.

I think even Adrienne came away with some good experiences! Mmmmmmmmm Ice Cream at snow camp...

FAMILY NEWS

We are expecting our second child! Kayleigh is due August 18th! We are so excited to be adding to our little family.

Sometimes I'm staggered by what my kids' childhood will be like compared to my own, but God is a GREAT God, and he will take care of our kids way better than we could by ourselves.

Please pray for us as we continue to travel with Kayleigh expecting. Many of you ladies know how it can be, and with the added stress of travel and presenting, we would covet your prayers!
