2006 Theme Verse

Psal m16:11

"Thou wilt shew me the path of life: in thy presence is fulness of joy; at thy right hand there are pleasures for evermore."

Pastor & Mrs. Kohl are in Israel this morning and should be returning this Thursday. Please keep praying for them. Pastor hopes to inform us about the trip in his message next Sunday morning.

Because of this great gift, Pastor would like to ask not to receive any gifts for his birthday on Sunday, February 26. All he wants is a great attendance at church that day. Any gifts can be designated to the Parking Lot Fund.

The Bible - God's Holy Book

This Book contains the mind of God, the state of man, the way of salvation, the doom of sinners, and the happiness of believers.

Its doctrines are holy, its precepts are binding, its histories are true, and its decisions immutable.

Read it to be wise, believe it to be safe, and practice it to be holy.

It contains light to direct you, food to support you, and comfort to cheer you.

It is the traveler's map, the pilgrim's staff, the pilot's compass, the soldier's sword, and the Christian's character.

Christ is its subject, our good its design, and the glory of God its end.

It should fill the memory, rule the heart and guide the feet.

It should be read slowly, frequently, and prayerfully.

It is given to you in life, will be open in the judgement, and be remembered forever.

It involves the highest responsibility, rewards the greatest labor, and condemns all who trifle with its holy precepts.

God's Tapestry

In the Lord's kingdom there are sowers and reapers. Some do the unrewarding work of plowing and scattering the precious seed of God's Word, and some reap the benefits of other's labors and gather the abundant harvest. Yet both are vitally needed because no one can do alone the extensive work that Christ commands.

In eastern countries, professional weavers are sometimes unable to complete in a lifetime the large tapestries assigned to them. When one artisan dies, however, another picks up the threads and weaves according to the original pattern.

The same is true with evangelists, missionaries, and everyone who engages in the Lord's work. They labor faithfully until death. Then others build on the work they began.

Jesus said, "One soweth and another reapeth." (John 4:37). How beautiful is the thought that all believers work together in one great task that will bring to completion God's eternal plan!

Let us take up the threads that others have placed in the loom of service and do our part by supporting missionary endeavors with our prayers and finances, and by our personal witnessing. One day the tapestry will be finished, and we'll be able to appreciate its beauty throughout all eternity.

The Last Word

One stormy night at sea, a ship's captain saw what appeared to be the lights of another ship in front of him. He had a message sent: "Change your course 10 degrees North."

A reply came blinking back: "Change your course 10 degrees South."

The ship's Captain frowned and, slowly simmering, had an answer sent: "I am an admiral. Change your course 10 degrees North."

The reply followed: "I am a seaman first-class: Change your course 10 degrees South!"

This impertinence enraged the Captain and, glowering, he had this message sent: "I said change your course 10 degrees North! This is a battleship!"

Within seconds, the reply flashed back: "And I said change your course 10 degrees South! This is a lighthouse!"
