To walk beside the Galilean Sea
Seem to hear in its waves, “Peace, be still.”
And stand, heart pounding in remembrance,
Before Golgatha’s foreboding hill.

To walk into Gethsemane’s garden,
Recalling my Lord’s anguished prayer,
His acceptance of the bitter cup of the cross
The His Own from perdition would spare.

To stand where our Saviour once stood
And look upon Petra’s rocky face,
Our precious “Rock of Ages,”
Who saved us with His love and grace.

To look upon the great Mount of Olives,
Historical spot in God’s land –
Where clothed in glory and majesty,
Our Lord in His return will stand!

To look upon that sealed Eastern Gate –
And look forward to that great time when
It will suddenly swing open wide,
“And the King of Glory shall come in!”
