Happy Mother's Day!

The Twentieth Time

John and Charles Wesley were blessed with a patient mother. Once her husband said, "I marvel at your patience! You have told that child the same thing twenty times!"

Susanna Wesley looked fondly at the child and said, "Had I spoken the matter only nineteen, I should have lost all my labor."

Two Religions

A woman sat by a hearthside place,
Reading a book with a pleasant face.
Till a child came up with a childish frown,
and pushed the book saying, "Put it down!"
Then the mother, slapping his curly head, said,
"Troublesome child, go off to bed;
A great deal of God's Book I must know,
To train you up as you should go.
And the child went off to bed to cry
And denounce religion - by and by.

Another woman bent o'er a book
With a smile of joy and an intent look,
Till a child came up and tapped her knee,
And said of the book, "Put it down! Take me!"
Then the mother sighed as she stroked his head,
Saying softly, "I never shall get it read;
But I'll try by loving to learn His will,
And His love into my child instill."
That child went to bed without a sigh
And will love religion - by and by.

"Save the Parking Lot" Day

Next Sunday, May 21

The parking lot around the church has deteriorated to the point where it needs immediate attention. A 1½" layer of new blacktop along Hemlock Road and the area we own behind the church could save it. The cost would be approximately $5,800. See insert card and pray about this matter. If 58 people gave $100, we would reach our goal. But any gifts - more or less - would be appreciated.

The Secret

I met God in the morning
When my day was at its best,
And His Presence came like sunrise
Like a glory in my breast.

All day long the Presence lingered.
All day long He stayed with me.
And we sailed in perfect calmness
O'er a very troubled sea.

Other ships were torn and battered,
Other ships were sore distressed,
But the winds that seemed to drive them
Brought to me a peace and rest.

Then I thought of other mornings,
With a keen remorse of mind,
When I too had loosed the moorings
With His Presence far behind.

So I think I know the secret
Learned from many a troubled way:
You must seek God in the morning
If you want Him through the day!

– Ralph Cushman

“My voice shalt thou hear in the morning, O Lord;
in the morning will I direct my prayer unto thee,
and will look up.” – Psalm 5:3
