Earn points by attending on Wednesday (1pt.), reciting the books of the Bible (5 pts. for each Testament), quoting either Psalm 1 or Psalm 23 (5 pts.), and bringing a first time attender (5 pts.).

Somebody Needs Your Sympathy

Someone needs your sympathy,
Your words of comfort sweet.
You'll find him somewhere if you look:
Perhaps he's on the street,
Or maybe in a lonely room.
An invalid on his cot.
Perhaps he's suffered, suffered long.
Although you knew it not.

Somebody needs your sympathy,
Your prayers amid the strife.
Perhaps it is a mother dear
Who's suffered much in life.
Or some forsaken girl or boy
Beneath the world's cold feet.
Unnoticed by the passing throngs
They chance so much to meet.

Somebody needs your sympathy -
A doctor or a nurse,
Or preacher wearied with his toils,
Whom men despise and curse.
Or teacher, who has done her best
To educate your child,
Or man in business, worn and tired,
Whose brain is almost wild.

Somebody needs your sympathy -
A beggar by the way,
Or father bent with many cares
Who longs to hear you pray.
Or maybe some poor sinner lost
Because you passed him by:
Or wretched soul that's strayed from God,
Who very soon shall die.

Somebody needs your sympathy
Within a prison cell:
Though guilty of a crime, yet he
Would like to hear you tell
The story of redemption true
For all whose souls are saved
From evils, sin, and wickedness
That have his life enslaved.
