I'm Not Growing Old

They say that I am growing old.
I've heard them tell it time untold
In language plain and bold,
But I'm NOT growing old.

This frail old shell in which I dwell
Is growing old, I know full well-
But I am not the shell.

What if my hair is turning gray?
Gray hairs are honorable, they say.
What if my eyesight's growing dim?
I still can see to follow Him
Who sacrificed His life for me
Upon the cross of Calvary.

What should I care if Time's old plow
Has left its furrow on my brow?
Another house, not made by hand,
Awaits me in the glory land.

What if I falter in my walk?
What if my tongue refuses to talk?
I still can tread the narrow way;
I still can watch and praise and pray.

My hearing may not be so keen
As in the past it may have been.
Still, I can hear my Savior say
In whispers soft, "This is the way."

The outward man - though I do what I can
To lengthen out this life's short span-
Shall perish, and return to dust,
As everything in nature must.

The inward man, the Scriptures say,
Is growing stronger every day.
Then how can I be growing old,
When safe with in my Savior's fold?

Ere long my soul shall fly away
And leave this tenement of clay.
"this robe of flesh I'll drop, and rise
To seize the everlasting prize."
I'll meet you on the streets of gold
And PROVE that I'm not growing old.
