2008 Theme: Order

September's Verse:

"And after he had spent some time there, he departed, and went over all the country of Galatia and Phrygia in order, strengthening all the disciples."
(Acts 18:23)

A Senior Citizen's Lament

Thought I'd let my doctor check me, 'cause I didn't feel quite right
All those aches and pains annoyed me, and I couldn't sleep at night.
He could find no real disorder, but he wouldn't let it rest.
What with Medicare and Blue Cross, it wouldn't hurt to do some tests.
To the hospital he sent me, though I didn't feel that bad.
He arranged for them to give me every test that could be had.
I was fluoroscoped and cystoscoped, my aging frame displayed,
Stripped upon an ice-cold table while my gizzards were X-rayed.
I was checked for worms and parasites, for fungus and the crud,
While they pierced me with long needles, taking samples of my blood.
Doctors came to check me over, probed and pushed and poked around
And to make sure I was living, they wired me for sound.
They have finally concluded (their results have filled a page):
What I have will someday kill me; my affliction is old age!

Please remember the Parking Lot Project in your prayers and giving as we would like to get as much done as we can this year.

My Church

A room of quiet,
A temple of peace;
A home of faith-
Where doubtings cease.
A house of comfort,
Where hope is given;
A source of strength
To help us to heaven;
A place of worship,
A place to stay-
I found all this
In my church today,
- Owen W. Glassburn

The Perfect Church

I think that I shall never see
A church that's all it ought to be:
A church whose members never stray
Beyond the straight and narrow way

A church that has no empty pews,
Whose pastor never has the blues
A church whose deacons always deak,
And none are proud, and all are meek:

Where gossip never peddle lies,
Or make complaints or criticize;
Where all are always sweet and kind,
And all to other's faults are blind.

Such perfect churches there may be,
But none of them are know to me.
But still, I'll work, and pray and plan,
To make my own the best I can.
