Choir Practice

Next Sunday night, November 8 brings some special Holiday Choir practices at 5:30 pm. Members of the Men's Ensemble and Ladies' Ensemble and those who can sing parts should assemble for for practice. You will miss the men's meeting and ladies' meeting during these 4 practices. Also meet on Sunday mornings at 9:30 for a review practice with Mr Priore before Sunday School

30 Cards - $64,662!

Yes, that's right, we have collected 25 cards for Faith Promise Missions Giving so far which total $64,662 of promise this year. Can you imagine what the amount would be if we collected 70 cards as usual? What if we got 80? 90? 100? We could help so many missionaries take the gospel of Jesus Christ to these around the world. Pray and fill out a card today.

Parking Lot Update

The binder has been put down this week! Feel free to park on it. We are still a few thousand dollars short for this part of the project. Thanks for all who have been giving to this point for the last 5 years!

In the spring we will cover the lot with 1 1/2 inches of blacktop. The cost for that will be about $7,000 more.

Personal Pronoun "I"

Martin Luther once said, "The heart of religion is in its personal pronoun." I once attended, in the Royal Albert Hall, London, a magnificent rendering of Handel's "Messiah" by a choir of several hundreds. The friend who accompanied me was a dear saint of God, then in his seventies. When the "Hallelujah Chorus" rose to its stupendous heights, "King of kings, and Lord of lords," my friend could hardly contain himself. The tears were streaming from his clear blue eyes and he whispered to me, "That was my Savior they were singing about." I shall never forget the meaning he put into that word "My."
