A Smile

It needs so little sympathy
To cheer a weary way,
Sometimes a little kindness
Lights up a dreary day;
A very simple, friendly word
May hope and strength impart,

Or just an understanding smile
Revive some fainting heart;
And, like a sudden sunlit ray,
Lighting a darkened room,
A sunny spirit may beguile
The deepest depths of gloom.

Suppose

by Fred Jarvis

Suppose it were your birthday
And all your friends would come
And gather round your fireplace
There in your happy home.

We celebrate His birthday
With all our pomp and style;
But give to one another
And grieve Him all the while.

They come with smiles and gladness
And bring their presents too.
But when they start to share them,
There's not a one for you.

'Tis Christ we claim to honor
At this glad Christmastime;
Don't spend on friends the dollars
And give Him just a dime.

They give them to each other,
A grand and costly lot.
But for the guest of honor,
They somehow just forgot.

To give to one another
Indeed is very nice;
But best of all to Jesus,
For him let's sacrifice.

You say such things don't happen,
Nor should it ever be;
It seems to crude and cruel,
For folks like you and me

His cause too long has suffered
By thoughtless, selfish men.
Let's bring to Christ the firstfruits,
And give our best to Him.

But friend, have you considered
Just this is what men do?
Not, of course, to humans,
But of our Lord, its true.
