What shall you give to one small boy?

A glamorous name, a tinsel toy,

A barlow knife, a puzzle pack,

A train that runs on a curving track?

A picture book, a real live pet . . .

No, there's plenty of time for such things yet;

Give him a day for his very own—

Just one small boy and his dad alone.

A walk in the woods, a romp in the park,

A fishing trip from dawn to dark,

Give the best gift to that bright lad—

The companionship of his dear dad.

Games are outgrown, and toys decay—

But he'll never forget if you "give him a day."
