The Bar

The name of each saloon's a Bar.	A Bar to honored useful life.
The fittest of its names by far.	A door to brawling, senseless strife;
A Bar to heaven, a door to hell:	A Bar to all that's true and brave,
Whoever named it named it well.	A door to every drunkard's grave;
A Bar to manliness and wealth,	A Bar to joys that home imparts,
A door to want and broken health.	A door to tears and aching hearts;
A Bar to honor, pride and fame,	A Bar to heaven, a door to hell,
A door to grief and sin and shame.	Whoever named it named it well.
A Bar to hope, a Bar to prayer,
A door to darkness and despair.	- Written by a prisoner, Joliet, IN

◆ THE BAD NEWS ◆

1. The Sinner

All are sinners. A sinner is someone who has committed a crime, small or large, against God's holiness and commandments.

"For all have sinned, and come short of the glory of God;" (Romans 3:23)

"For there is not a just man upon earth, that doeth good, and sinneth not."
(Ecclesiastes 7:20)

Illustration:

If a person sins just 3 times a day (which many would consider pretty good!) that would be about 1000 times a year. Multiply 1000 by your age. Even "good" people have sinned a lot! How would you like to stand before a judge accused of this many crimes?

2. The Sentence

"For the wages of sin is death..."
(Romans 6:23)

"Wherefore, as by one man sin entered into the world, and death by sin; and so death passed upon all men, for that all have sinned:" (Romans 5:12)

Illustration:

Even though a Judge might not want to, he must punish those who are guilty. He would not be "just" if he let guilty people go free. Even if a person says, "I'm sorry" or "I didn't mean it," a judge is subject to the law and must enforce the penalty. Even saying, "I've been good" doesn't take away our crimes.

◆ THE GOOD NEWS ◆

3. The Substitute

Jesus has paid our sentence for us!

"But God commendeth [showed] his love toward us, in that, while we were yet sinners, Christ died for us. Much more then, being now justified by his blood, we shall be saved from wrath through him." (Romans 5:8-9)

"For Christ also hath once suffered for sins, the just for the unjust, that he might bring us to God, ..." (1 Peter 3:18)

Illustration:

In San Francisco in the early 1900s, an identical twin surrendered to the police for a murder his brother had committed. He was tried, convicted and hung. He never defended himself. When his brother turned himself in as the real criminal, he was told that his crime had been paid for in full, he could go free.

4. The Salvation

"That if thou shalt confess with thy mouth the Lord Jesus, and shalt believe in thine heart that God hath raised him from the dead, thou shalt be saved. For with the heart man believeth unto righteousness; and with the mouth confession is made unto salvation." (Romans 10:9-10)

Illustration:

Believe – means to put your complete confidence, trust and faith in someone else's word and abilities. Like putting your life in a pilot's hand when you get on an airplane.
Receive – accept God's free gift by calling on the Lord Jesus Christ in faith to save you.

"...but the gift of God is eternal life through Jesus Christ our Lord." (Romans 6:23)

"... For whosoever shall call upon the name of the Lord shall be saved." (Romans 10:13)
