SETTING THE SAILS

When Hudson Taylor, the famous missionary, first went to China, it was in a sailing vessel. Very close to the shore of cannibal islands, the ship was becalmed, and it was slowly drifting shoreward unable to go about, and the savages were eagerly anticipating a feast.

The captain came to Mr. Taylor and besought him to pray for the help of God. "I will," said Taylor, "provided you set your sails to catch the breeze." The captain declined to make himself a laughing stock by unfurling in a dead calm. Taylor said, "I will not undertake to pray for the vessel unless you will prepare the sails." And it was done.

While engaged in prayer, there was a knock at the door of his stateroom. "Who is there?" The captain's voice responded, "Are you still praying for wind?" "Yes." "Well," said the captain, "you'd better stop praying, for we have more wind that we can manage."

THOTS:

- ▶ As a man grows older and wiser, he talks less and says more.
- ▶ Who gossips to you will gossip of you.
- ▶ To think God's thoughts is the highest exercise of the mind.
