Eden Corn Festival Parade Float

Our float will honor the 400th Anniversary of the King James Bible. Time to brainstorm some great ideas for the entry on Sunday, August 7.

Due to the difficult winter we are having we have lost much of our parking spaces to snow piles. We ask that regulars who are healthy to drop your family off at the door and park in the new parking lot and walk in. Try to keep the parking by the church open for new people, older people, and those with infirmities.

The 28th Anniversary celebration of Church will be Sunday, May 1, followed by a chicken dinner at the American Legion Barn. Details soon.

Feelings come and feelings go, and feelings are deceiving,
My warrant is the Word of God, naught else is worth believing.

Though all my heart should feel condemned for want of some sweet token,
There is One greater than my heart whose Word cannot be broken.

I'll trust in God's unchanging Word, till soul and body sever,
For though all things shall pass away, His Word shall stand forever.

David Norris writes:

“When we know what the Bible says about its own preservation, then and only then, ought we to set about looking into the history of the various manuscripts and translations. Our task will then be somewhat different to that of others; we shall be looking to see how God has preserved His Word rather than if. Then we shall be able to establish which manuscripts are genuine and which are spurious on the basis of Scripture and not from the pseudo-science of critics.

Certainly those tainted with false teaching should be returned to the waste-bins. The cavalier work of men such as Westcott and Hort can then be discounted, for whatever their knowledge of the biblical languages, their unregenerate hearts and flagrant opposition to the gospel rule out their work as being of any real value. Giving such people the task of working on the sacred text is like leaving thieves in charge of your valuables, don't expect much to be left on your return.”

PS - Westcott and Hort were two corrupt infidels who rewrote much of the Greek New Testament to corrupt what it says. All new versions, including the NIV are based on the corrupted text of Westcott and Hort.

Dr. Phil Stringer will be teaching on the King James Bible for our Spring Bible Conference - April 25-27 at 7pm nightly.

Victory Verses: Fear

Isaiah 51:7

“ Harken unto me, ye that know righteousness, the people in whose heart is my law; fear ye not the reproach of men, neither be ye afraid of their revilings.”

Proverbs 29:25

“ The fear of man bringeth a snare: but whoso putteth his trust in the LORD shall be safe.”

Jesus quoted Scripture when the devil tempted Him to sin. He used the Sword of the Spirit, which is the Word of God.

We should too!
(Matthew 4:1-11; Ephesians 6:17)
