One Year to Live

The Baltimore Sun conducted a contest, and the following poem received a prize for the best answer to the questions, "What would you do if you had one more year to live?"

"If I had but one year to live;
 one year to help; one year to give;
 One year to love; one year to bless;
 One year of better things to stress;
 One year to sing; one year to smile;
 To brighten earth a little while;
 One year to sing my Maker's praise
 One year to fill with work my days;

One year to strive for a reward
 When I should stand before my Lord,
 I think that I would spend each day,
 In just the very self-same way

That I do now. For from afar
 The call may come across the bar
 At any time, and I must be Prepared to meet eternity

So if I have a year to live,
 Or just one day in which to give
 A pleasant smile, a helping hand,
 A mind that tries to understand

A fellow-creature when in need
 'tis one with me- I take no heed.
 But try to live each day He sends
 To serve my gracious Master's ends.

Amazing Science in the King James Bible

Fact #63

Intense Sorrow or Stress is Harmful to Your Health

(Proverbs 18:14; Mark 14:34)

Researchers have studied individuals with no prior medical problems who showed symptoms of stress cardiomyopathy including chest pain, difficult breathing, low blood pressure, and even heart failure - following a stressful incident.

Fact #64

Microorganisms Anticipated

(Exodus 22:31; Leviticus 22:8)

The Bible warns, "That which dieth of itself, or is torn with beasts, he shall not eat to defile himself therewith: I am the LORD." Today we understand that a decaying carcass is full of disease causing germs.

An Excerpt from the

The hand towel in the powder room is for the use of guests. A gentleman may use the towel but does not refold it after use.

A gentleman always uses a coaster.

When a gentleman is in the company of a woman, he walks slightly behind her in a crowded room.

January's Memory Verse

2 Timothy 3:14

"But continue thou in the things which thou hast learned and hast been assured of, knowing of whom thou hast learned them;"

Man Still Preaches Truth

Spurgeon said that the greatest compliment ever paid him was spoken by one of his outspoken enemies who said: "Here is a man who has not moved an inch forward in all his ministry. At the close of the nineteenth century he is teaching the theology of the first century, and is proclaiming doctrine current in Nazareth and Jerusalem in the first century!"
