The Strait Way

"You're just out of date," said young Pastor Nate
To one of our faithful old preachers
Who had carried for years in travel and tears
The Gospel to poor, sinful creatures.

"You still preach on Hell and shock cultured ladies
With your barbarous doctrine of blood.
You're so far behind; you'll never catch up.
You're a flat tire stuck in the mud."

For some little while a wee bit of a smile
Enlightened the old preacher's face;
Being made the butt of a ridiculous cut
Did not ruffle his sweetness and grace.

Then he turned to Pastor Nate so suave and sedate,
"Catch up, did my ears hear your say?
Why, I couldn't succeed if I doubled my speed;
My friend, I'm not going your way."

CT Studd

"Christianity isn't worth a snap of your fingers
if it doesn't straighten out your character."

A Thot for Parents

Another testimony from real parents who kicked the television addiction: "We have had television for about one year in the past 21. Besides not being fit to watch, it was a big waste of time. We feel that our family unit was much stronger because of the lack of television in the home. Our children got better grades when they were in Christian school. The teacher actually guessed that we did not have television. It is also a blessing to see our grown children and their families serving the Lord without having a television to hold them back."

Gentlemen

by Dr. George Alquist, Jr

A gentleman never expects to share a revolving door with another person.

A gentleman obeys the item limit at the express checkout.

A gentleman does not remove another person's laundry from the washer or dryer at the Laundromat, regardless of how long it has been there.
