A Reminder

In a world of rush and hurry,
 many things get dim and blurry.
 As life's pace accelerates each passing year.

"Quicker-faster" is the by-word
 but the best advice that I've heard
 Is something I'll pass on for you to hear.

Certain things must still move slowly
 when engaged in service lowly,
 For regardless what folks say or what they hear.

Without fear from a disputer-
 I'll declare that no computer
 Can stroke a hand or help a body dry a tear.

"I would rather fail in a cause that will ultimately triumph than triumph in a cause that will ultimately fail."

Happy Birthday!

1 Lemardo Gonzales

If I am ever bedfast, and you want to comfort me, Please do not consign me to watching the TV!

Unless you're conspiring how to hasten my demise, Don't put a flatscreen in front of my ailing eyes.

Just plug me into music, like those gospel songs of old, or a Bible-Teaching Pastor as he preaches words of gold.

My soul will be contented, and the tension melt away, and I'll feel God's presence and know He's with me all the way.

So... If I am ever bedfast, and you want to comfort me, Just turn off the commotion and 'shine some light' on me.

A Thot for Parents

"Having eliminated television, we have noticed a marked improvement in the children's homeschooling and in their attitudes. Their conversations have also changed from what they have watched to what they have done. We have a family devotion and Bible reading time, and the children read more. As far as movies, we first look up to see the content and mostly watch Christian movies. We also view videos about prophecy and Biblical subjects. We do not permit anything that has cursing or using the Lord's name in vain."

Teacher Tips

The Preparation of Your Life:

The lesson is a reflection of your life. Your life and lesson must agree! (Philippians 4:9)

The lesson is an extension of your life. Your life and lesson must inspire! (2 Timothy 2:1-2)

Gentlemen

by Dr. George Alquist, Jr

A gentleman never makes a scene.

A gentleman does not yell across the store.

A gentleman does not hold up others by talking to a friend who is on the job.
