Welcome to our

Annual Missions Conference!

This Year's Theme:

"Fellowhelpers To the Truth" (3 John 8)

We have several special events going on this week, and several missionary guests visiting with us. Please consult your missions book in this bulletin for more information!

"We died before we came"

When James Calvert went out to cannibal Fiji with the message of the Gospel, the captain of the ship tried to dissuade him. "You will risk your life and all those with you by going among such savages!"

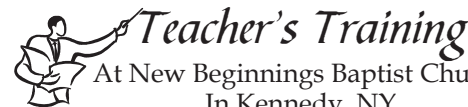

was the warning. He replied, "We died before we came here."

Three Requirements

Hudson Taylor would tell those who wanted to be missionaries to China that there were three indispensable requirements for a missionary:

1. Patience
2. Patience
3. Patience

Teacher Tips

An educational parable once compared the inattentive student to a deaf and blind man - the inattentive mind neither sees nor hears. It would be a difficult task to communicate truth to such a person.

It is imperative, then, for the teacher to make it the highest priority to secure the total concentration of the student. He must constantly think and plan for ways to rein in attention.

Gentlemen

by Dr. George Alquist, Jr

A Christian gentleman always leaves a generous tip as a matter of testimony, especially when leaving a gospel tract.

A gentleman waits until another person at the table has his order before beginning to eat.
