It matters so little how much you may know; The people you've seen; or the places you go. For it all comes to naught when placed at His feet. Those mean nothing to Jesus, when the Lord you will meet.

Only one life, so soon it will pass.
Only what's done for Christ will last.

Only one chance to do His will.

So give to Jesus all your days,

It's the only life that pays;

When you recall you have but one life.

You may take all the treasures from faraway lands; take all the riches you can hold in your hands; and take all the pleasures your money can buy; But what will you have when it's your turn to die?

A Thot for Parents

Spend twice the time and half the money on your kids.

Teacher Tips

"As our girls were entering their teen years, my wife prayed one night, "Lord, please help us as we rear these girls. We have never done this before." I have referred to that simple statement often for well over a decade. Whether it be our students, children, or others' children, we have only one attempt to get it right!

Our prayer should be for God to help us realize our incredible responsibility and opportunity each time we impart truth to those precious treasures God entrusts to us."

-Dr Paul Chappell

Gentlemen

by Dr. George Alquist, Jr

When dining at a restaurant with a view, the woman always gets the better view.

At a formal dinner, a gentleman waits until the hostess unfolds her napkin and puts it on her lap before he unfolds and places his.
