Dad's Five Penny Promise Believed

A friend tells of overhearing two little girls who were counting their pennies.

One said, "I have five pennies" The other said, "I have ten."

"No," said the first little girl, "You have just five cents, same as I."

"But," the second child quickly replied, "my father said that when he came home tonight, he would give me five cents."

The child's faith gave her proof of that which she did not as yet see, and she counted it as being already hers, because it had been already promised by her father.

"Now faith is the substance of things hoped for, the evidence of things not seen." Hebrews 11:1
