MAKE ME A PROMISE

When God calls my number and it's time go,
 I've made preparations I want you to know,
 I'll be in that number that meets in the air
 Make me a promise that you'll meet me there.

By David Patillo

Make me a promise that we'll meet some day,
 Where mansions are waiting in that land far away.
 I want you to tell me so I'll know it's true,
 Make me a promise that you'll be there too.

A Quote of Note: "I have but one candle of life left to burn, and I would rather burn it out in a land filled with darkness than in a land flooded with light."

John Keith Falconer

WONDERFUL STORY OF LOVE AND GRACE

Wonderful story of infinite grace,
 Story of One crucified in my place,
 Hanging forsaken between earth and sky,
 Shamed and tormented and left there to die,

His kingly head bowed with the weight of my sin,
 (Foul was I, Lord, without and within).
 Angels still carol the story through space,
 Wonderful story of infinite grace!

Wonderful story of infinite love,
 Wanting me there in Heaven above,
 Seeing me, blood-washed, as spotless as He,
 Building a home for a sinner like me.

O, how it eases the pain I must hear,
 Only to dream of that home waiting there,
 Its windows aglow with the light of His face!
 Wonderful story of love and of grace!

When Julian the Apostate, who sought to destroy Christianity, was on the march with his army in the campaign against Persia in the year 363, one of the soldiers of his army said to a Christian who was being abused by the soldiery, "Where is your carpenter now?"

"He is making a coffin for your emperor," was the reply of the Christian.

A few months afterward, Julian received a mortal wound in battle. Julian, realizing that his death was at hand, dipped his hand in the blood of his wound and threw the blood toward Heaven, exclaiming as he did so, "Thou hast conquered, O Galilean!"
