Reformer's Unanimous at the Evans Chapel	7:00 pm

As I wash my dishes, Stack them neatly on each shelf,
I'm reminded of the hungry, And I thank God for my wealth.

I walk into the bedroom, There I tuck each pleat and fold;
I envision some poor drunkard who has no bed his head to hold.

I go to my child's room, And pick up his toys;
Then picture some sick dying tot whose mother would count this a joy.

I proceed into the wash room, As the clothes I sort and mend
I'm reminded of the weak ones, Who for their own cannot attend.

As I end my shores of housework, To my God I must pray:
"A great lesson You have taught me as I clean and wash each day.

Give me dirty dishes, Give me beds amess,
Give me toys all scattered 'round, and clothes to wash and press"

Happy Mother's Day!

Moms, please take a plant home with you. Keep it in the shade, and water it often.

This is a dress up affair. Do the best you can. The banquet and rally are free. An offering will be received by the hosting church: Grace of Calvary Baptist of Erie, PA.

Ezra 7:27 "Blessed be the LORD God of our fathers, which hath put such a thing as this in the king's heart, to beautify the house of the LORD which is in Jerusalem:"

Preaching has been described this way:
"A mild-mannered man standing up before mild-mannered people and exhorting them to be more mild-mannered."

However, the true function of preaching is to disturb the comfortable and comfort the disturbed.
