2 OUT OF 45 SALESMEN

The average insurance agent makes forty-five weekly calls on prospects. Only fifteen listen to him. Of those fifteen, only two put their name on the "dotted line".

If an insurance agent calls on forty-five people and only sells two policies, should soul winners be discouraged if they make a thousand calls, and bring only one soul to Jesus? Never!

ASTRONAUTS INITIAL TEST: WHO AM I?

It is significant that the first US astronauts, while being trained for their moon flights, were required to give twenty answers to the query, "Who are you?"

Take the same test yourself. Do you really know who you are? Scientists agree that our desperate search leads all human beings to seek heroes and to imitate others, to "paste bits and pieces of other people on ourselves."

"Who am I?" Consider this: there are three of you. There is the person you think you are. There is the person others think you are. And there is the person God knows you are and can be through Christ.

TROTSKY'S CASE

Leon Trotsky was in frequent contact with Christians in New York in his youth and young manhood - but no one ever tried to win him for Christ.
