A newspaper in Kansas, trying to square up a mistake that had occurred in a previous issue, carried the following item:
 "We wish to apologize for an error in the wedding story in last week's issue. Due to a typesetter's mistake we said, 'The roses were punk.' What we intended to say was, 'The noses were pink.' "

Those going on the Jamaica Trip will be visiting the Wesley family. They requested we bring a few items. If you can get these, bring them to the church office, or give to Rebekah Kohl by Sunday, August 10.

- Chocolate Chips
- Velveta Cheese
- Children's Tylenol
- Peanut Butter
- Pepperoni
- Bigelow Chai Tea
- Tylenol Migrane
- Gravy Mix Packets
- Double-Stuff Oreos
- Neosporin
- Dry Italian Seasoning Packets
- Humidity-Proof Hairspray ☺

A big "thank you" to everyone who helped in making DVBS a success at the Evans Chapel this week. Many worked "full time" or "part time" in ministering to many children and teens.

May your real reward be in Heaven! Matthew 10:42 "And whosoever shall give to drink unto one of these little ones a cup of cold water only in the name of a disciple, verily I say unto you, he shall in no wise lose his reward."

Please welcome and be a blessing to the Amazing Grace missionaries who have come to help us at the Hamburg Fair:

- Ignacio & Babette Enriques - Arizona
- Derl Brown - Pennsylvania
- Jim & Gina Olson - Virginia

Please sign up for a day to fast for this outreach that God will bring prepared souls to our booth in the Events Center building.

To work at the booth, see the sign up lists on the table. We need you!

TIME TO PREACH, TIME TO WAR

Peter Muhlenburg was pastor of the Woodstock Lutheran Church during the days of the American Revolution. One Sunday, after he delivered a challenging sermon, he doffed his clerical robe before the congregation. Beneath it were the regimentals of an officer in the Revolutionary army.

To his astonished audience, he said, "There is a time to preach, and a time to fight. The time to fight has now come!" He then went out on the church lawn and recruited and inducted almost every able-bodied man present into the ranks of Washington's army.

MIND THE OTHER'S HORSE

DL Moody tells of a wealthy young London banker who was not fitted to be a soul-winner, yet wanted to do something for his Master. He hired an aged cabby, and offered to pay the usual fare and tend his horse while the cabby went to hear Moody preach.

For two hours the Christian gave a silent testimony outside, while the old man heard the glad tidings inside. If you cannot do great things, you can at least mind a horse!
