Ocean water contains seven times more salt than the human body can safely ingest. Drinking it, a person dehydrates because the kidneys demand extra water to flush the overload of salt. The more salt water someone drinks, the thirstier he gets. He actually dies of thirst.

When we lust, we become like this man. We thirst desperately for something that looks like what we want. We don't realize, however, that it is precisely the opposite of what we really need. In fact, it can kill us.

Ladies, pick your new Secret Sister today after the 11am service! See Louise Bucco.

HENRY MARTYN

Missionary & Bible Translator

One of the great names in missions is Henry Martyn (781-1812). He was an English missionary to India and what was then called Persia. When he arrived in Calcutta in April, 1806 he made the statement, "Now let me burn out for God!" Little did he know how fast he would burn out for God. Only six years later, he became ill with fever and died. He was buried by strangers and unbelievers at Tocat, Turkey. However, Martyn compressed a lifetime of service into those six short years. Let me share with you a statement by Henry Martyn.

He said, "The Spirit of Christ is the spirit of missions, and the nearer we get to him, the more intensely missionary we must become." The closer we get to God, the more we will care about missions. Why? God loves the world. The great passion of His heart is saving people. Therefore, the closer we get to Him the more we understand what He cares about.

Pastor's Note: Martyn used what little time he had to translate the Bible for Hindu and Arabic people.
