William Montague Dyke became blind at the age of ten. In spite of this disability, he was a smart and handsome young man who did well in school. In fact, he did so well academically that he won a scholarship to a distinguished graduate school in England. While attending that school, he met and eventually fell in love with a beautiful girl.

They decided to get married. Before the wedding took place, he learned about a new eye surgery that might possibly give him back his sight. He didn't know if the surgery would be successful, but he agreed to have the procedure. After years of being blind, he decided that the bandages would not be removed until the wedding ceremony. If he was able to see, then we wanted his first fight to be of his bride in her wedding dress.

The day of the wedding arrived, and the bride made her way down the aisle. As she arrived at the front of the church, the last bandage was removed. He was able to see! Tears flowed from his eyes as he looked at his bride. It was a sight that nearly took his breath away. He whispered to her that she was more beautiful than he had ever imagined.

The point of this story is that a Christian will experience an even more dramatic scene in heaven. A child of God has the promise of seeing the Savior, Jesus Christ!

Contenders for our Country

SIGNERS OF THE DECLARATION OF INDEPENDENCE

Signer #12: Roger Sherman (1721-1793)

Connecticut. Age at signing: 55

Married: Elizabeth (7 children);

Rebecca (8 children)

Occupation: Lawyer

Quotes & Notes:

"I believe that there is one only living and true God, existing in three persons, the Father, the Son and the Holy Ghost . . . [and] that at the end of this world there will be a resurrection of the dead and a final judgement of all mankind when the righteous shall be publically acquitted by Christ the Judge and admitted to everlasting life and glory, and the wicked be sentenced to everlasting punishment."

Jonathan Edwards said of Sherman: "As an avowed professor of religion, he did not hesitate to appear openly in its defense, and maintain the peculiar doctrines of grace. He was exemplary in attending all the institutions of the gospel, in the practice of virtue in general, and in showing himself friendly to all good men."

Pastor Seth will bring a message and presentation about the recent Nepal trip on Sunday, March 29 during the 6:30pm service with input from Brandon & Rebekah.

A visitor said to a wounded soldier who lay dying in the hospital, "What church are you of?" "Of the Church of Christ," was the immediate reply.

"I mean, what persuasion are you of?"

"Persuasions?" said the dying man, as he looked heavenward, beaming with love to the Savior, "I am persuaded that neither death nor life, nor angels, nor principalities, nor powers, nor things present nor things to come . . . Shall be able to separate us from the love of God, which is in Christ Jesus our Lord." (Romans 8:38)

SENIORS FELLOWSHIP & DINNERS
