Jehovah-Jireh

He daily spreads a glorious feast, and at His table dine
 The whole creation - man and beast, and He's a friend of mine.
 Say not, my soul, "From whence can God relieve my care?"
 Remember that Omnipotence hath servants everywhere.
 His methods are sublime; His heart profoundly kind;
 God never is before His time, and never is behind.
 Tho' troubles assail and dangers affright
 Tho' friends should all fail and foes all unite;
 Yet one thing secures us, whatever betide,
 The Scripture assures us, "The Lord will provide."

Contenders for our Country

SIGNERS OF THE DECLARATION OF INDEPENDENCE

Signer #19: Abraham Clark (1726-1794)

New Jersey. Age at signing: 50

Married: Sarah (10 children)

Occupation: Farmer, Lawyer

Quotes & Notes:

When his son, Thomas, an artillery captain, was put in solitary confinement in a dark hole of the ship and was not fed, Abraham Clark was informed by the British that his son was held captive and would be released only if Clark deserted the American cause.

But patriotism was strong in this plain and pious Signer, and he rejected the enemy's offer to free his son . . .

Upon adjournment of Congress in June 1794, Mr. Clark retired from public life, being exhausted by political toils and infirmities of his feeble condition. In the autumn of 1794 he experienced a heat stroke while watching a bridge being built across one of his fields, Realizing his danger, he stepped into his chaise and drove himself home. Two hours later he died, at age 69.

He was buried in the church yard in Rahway, the same church to which he had given so generously. This inscription is on his grave:

*Firm and decided as a patriot,
 Zealous and faithful as a friend to the public
 He loved his country,
 And adhered to her cause
 In the darkest hours of her struggles
 Against oppression.*
